

CALIFORNIA ROOM RENTAL AGREEMENT

Template for Renting One Room in a California Residence

Important: This is a general California template, not legal advice. Local city/county ordinances, rent-control rules, subsidy rules, fair-housing requirements, and the facts of the living arrangement may change what is lawful. Have a California landlord-tenant attorney or local housing authority review this before signing, especially if the property is in a rent-control or just-cause jurisdiction.

1. Parties and Property

This Room Rental Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into on May 28th, 2026, by and between:

Owner/Landlord: Julie R Turvey & Kevin D Turvey

Renter/Tenant/Lodger: Hassan Moussaoui

Property Address: 6530 E El Pulcro st.

City/County/ZIP: Long Beach, California 90815

Room rented: Front bedroom 1 of 2

The rented room is for residential use only. The renter may use the shared/common areas described in this Agreement, subject to the house rules and reasonable access limitations stated below.

2. Legal Status of Occupancy

Check the box that best describes the arrangement. Do not check "lodger" unless the facts truly fit California Civil Code section 1946.5.

☐ Standard room rental / tenant arrangement. The renter has the exclusive right to occupy the rented room, plus permitted use of common areas.

☐ Single lodger in an owner-occupied dwelling. The owner lives in the dwelling, rents to only one lodger, retains overall control of the dwelling, and retains access rights to all areas occupied by the lodger, consistent with California Civil Code section 1946.5.

If more than one room renter/lodger lives in the home, or if the owner does not personally occupy the dwelling, the "single lodger" procedure may not apply.

3. Term

☒ Month-to-month tenancy beginning on May 28th, 2026.

☐ Fixed term beginning on _____, 20____ and ending on _____, 20____. After the fixed term, the agreement becomes month-to-month unless the parties agree otherwise in writing or lawful notice is given.

Temporary Rent Adjustment: The regular monthly rent is $850.00. For June, July, and August, Tenant shall pay $500.00 per month, with the remaining $350.00 per month to be credited, waived, reimbursed, or otherwise resolved in September or as otherwise agreed in writing by the Owners.

4. Rent

Monthly rent: $ 850 per month.

Rent is due on the 1st day of each month and is payable to: Julie R Turvey (562-234-9990) by: ☐ check ☐ electronic transfer ☐ cash ☒ other: Zelle.

If rent is paid in cash or money order, Owner/Landlord shall provide a written receipt upon payment.

Late fee, if any: $ 45, assessed only after rent is more than 15 days late. Any late fee must be a reasonable estimate of actual costs and must be lawful under California law.

Returned payment fee, if any: $ _____, only as allowed by law.

5. Security Deposit

Security deposit: $ Waved.

The security deposit is not last month's rent unless the parties separately agree in writing.

The deposit may be used only as allowed by California law, including unpaid rent, repair of damage beyond normal wear and tear, cleaning needed to return the room/premises to the same level of cleanliness as at move-in, and restoring/replacing landlord personal property if authorized by the agreement.

Within 21 calendar days after the renter vacates and returns possession, Owner/Landlord shall return the remaining deposit and provide an itemized statement for any lawful deductions, with documentation where required by law.

Pre-move-out inspection: The renter has the right to request an initial inspection before moving out, if applicable under California Civil Code section 1950.5.

6. Utilities, Internet, and Shared Expenses

No guest may become an additional occupant without Owner/Landlord's prior written consent, subject to fair-housing law and other applicable law.

9. House Rules

The renter agrees to follow reasonable, non-discriminatory house rules. House rules may not waive mandatory tenant protections or permit unlawful self-help eviction.

- Pets/animals: No pets or animals, and do not ever feed Dutch (dog) without permission by owner

Service animals and assistance animals are not treated as ordinary pets and must be handled in compliance with fair-housing and disability laws.

10. Maintenance, Cleanliness, and Damage

Renter shall keep the rented room and used common areas reasonably clean and sanitary, promptly report leaks, pests, unsafe conditions, or needed repairs, and avoid damaging the property.

Owner/Landlord shall maintain the premises as required by California law, including habitability obligations that cannot be waived by this Agreement.

Renter shall not alter, paint, install fixtures, change locks, or make repairs without prior written consent except in an emergency or where otherwise allowed by law.

11. Entry, Privacy, and Owner Access

For a standard tenant arrangement, Owner/Landlord shall comply with California entry rules, including reasonable notice where required by law, except in emergencies or other lawful circumstances.

For a single lodger arrangement, the owner's retained access and overall control should be consistent with Civil Code section 1946.5 and the facts stated in Section 2. Even in a lodger arrangement, the owner should act reasonably and avoid harassment, retaliation, or unlawful lockout conduct.

12. Prohibited Conduct

Renter shall not:

- Use the room or premises for unlawful activity.
- Create a nuisance, threaten others, or substantially interfere with other residents' peaceful use of the home.
- Damage the property or common areas.
- Sublet, assign, or rent the room to another person without prior written consent.
- Install cameras or recording devices in common areas, bathrooms, bedrooms, or private areas without written consent and compliance with law.

13. Rent Increases and Changes to Terms

Any rent increase or material change in terms must be made by written notice as required by California law and any applicable local ordinance. If the unit is subject to the California Tenant Protection Act or a local rent-control law, rent increases and termination rights may be restricted.

14. Termination and Move-Out

Month-to-month standard tenant arrangement: Either party may terminate only by serving lawful written notice. The required notice period and reason, if any, depend on California law, local law, length of occupancy, and whether just-cause protections apply.

Single lodger in owner-occupied dwelling: If Civil Code section 1946.5 applies, either party may terminate the hiring by written notice at least as long before the end of the rental period as required by Civil Code section 1946. After lawful notice expires, the lodger may be treated as a trespasser as allowed by law. This clause should not be used unless the arrangement truly qualifies as a single-lodger situation.

Move-out requirements: Renter shall return keys/remotes, remove personal property, leave the room and used common areas clean, and provide a forwarding address for deposit accounting.

No self-help eviction: Owner/Landlord may not unlawfully remove the renter, change locks, shut off utilities, remove doors/windows, seize property, or otherwise force move-out except through lawful procedures.

15. Fair Housing and Non-Discrimination

Owner/Landlord and Renter shall comply with applicable federal, state, and local fair-housing laws. Owner/Landlord will not discriminate based on protected characteristics or lawful source of income, including housing subsidies where applicable.

16. Required and Common California Disclosures

Attach or initial each disclosure that applies. Some disclosures depend on the age, condition, location, or features of the property.
